

By Race:

By Sex:

By Income:

Multiracial Non-Hispanic, Black, and American Indian/Alaska Native Americans are disproportionately impacted by asthma.

Female patients are more likely to receive an asthma diagnosis.

The lower one's income, the likelier they are to be diagnosed with asthma

West Virginia has the highest percentage of adults living with an asthma diagnosis (12.4%), and Florida has the lowest (7.3%).